Less than 14 days	☐ No refund ☐ Credit at Provider discretion

By provider

Provider may reschedule or cancel due to insufficient enrollment, instructor illness, or force majeure. Student may choose full refund or transfer to next available session.

4. Student responsibilities

Student agrees to:

- ☐ Arrive on time, prepared, and in appropriate attire (closed-toe shoes, etc.)

- ☐ Follow all safety rules and instructor directions
- ☐ Treat equipment, vehicles, and facility with care
- ☐ Not record or distribute course content without written permission
- ☐ Disclose relevant experience level and physical limitations

Provider may remove Student without refund for unsafe behavior, harassment, intoxication, or repeated disruption.

5. Materials & intellectual property

All course materials — including workbooks, videos, SOPs, presentations, and handouts — are proprietary to Provider. Student receives a limited license to use materials for personal business operations. Student may not:

- ☐ Resell, sublicense, or white-label materials without separate written agreement
 - ☐ Reproduce materials for commercial training of third parties
 - ☐ Remove copyright or proprietary notices

6. Certification

Completion of the course does not guarantee employment, business success, or manufacturer certification. Certificate of completion, if issued, confirms attendance and satisfactory participation only.

7. Assumption of risk & release

Student acknowledges that hands-on automotive training involves use of tools, chemicals, heat equipment, and vehicles. Student assumes inherent risks and releases Provider from liability for injury or property damage except caused by Provider gross negligence or willful misconduct, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

8. Media release (optional)

- ☐ Student grants Provider permission to use photos/videos from training for marketing
 - ☐ Student opts out of marketing use

9. Governing law

Governed by [STATE] law. Venue: [COUNTY, STATE].
